Did you watch Comic Relief on TV last night? I might – if she missed it (my mum / it was) such a huge fan – of course – reminded me have been on. If I really annoyed taking part weren't really famous. And the amount of money they've raised wouldn't – so much if the public hadn't joined in as well. Anyway, it was great fun and watched it to the end – but I wouldn't be so tired if I – gone to bed at my usual time! See you soon, Artur

Oxfam is a world in delivering emergency relief. If it weren't for this charity, thousands of children Europe – during World War II. Today, desperate people – (not have) clean water if Oxfam hadn't made this a priority during humanitarian disasters. And if – (not be) for Oxfam, the NGO ActionAid might not exist either; there wouldn't be so much pressure on governments to provide healthcare and education and to combat climate change. These charities – (not develop). But Oxfam need to be so successful nowadays if business with charity. Oxfam employs thousands of people worldwide, but it couldn't have become the UK's biggest high-street seller of second-hand books if – (not be) also for the thousands of volunteers who give their time working in these important charity shops.
